A ROUND-UP OF HOTELS AND HOTELIERS MAKING HEADLINES

EXPANSION OF KEYS BRAND

The brand launches its 16th hotel in the country in Kochi

Keys Hotels & Resorts announced the launch of Keys Kochi, its second in Kerala and 16th hotel across India. Hotel Keys Kochi, located close to Kerala's famous backwaters, offers breathtaking views and coupled with its proximity to MG Road, Fort Cochin and the Info Park, proves to be an ideal option for both business and leisure travellers, and tourists. Commenting on the launch, Anshu Sarin, CEO of Berggruen Hotels, said, "We are committed to expand our footprint in India and provide our guests with the best services and amenities. With the launch of Keys Kochi, we have bolstered our presence in Kerala and further strengthened our position in South India. It reaffirms the rapid growth story of the brand."

"Kochi as a destination is renowned for its offerings to both the business community and leisure travellers. Guests will be enthralled by the smart functional rooms at the Keys Kochi which provide a great view. Also, the hotel serves the best local as well as international cuisine and beverages. We are excited about the Kochi Hotel and hope our guests, too, will be fascinated by the experience at the hotel," she added. Keys Kochi is a fully equipped hotel with banquet facilities for conferences and receptions. The hotel has 151 rooms, many of which offer breathtaking views of the backwaters and are designed with a prime focus on guests' comfort. The Keys Kochi also gives special consideration to the safety of guests, especially women travellers. The hotel has 10 rooms which have been designed to cater to the specific needs and requirements of a lady traveller.

BEST CITY HOTEL AWARD

The Jehan Numa Retreat Bhopal bags the award at Madhya Pradesh State Tourism Awards 2015

The Jehan Numa retreat was recognised as the "Best City Hotel in Madhya Pradesh" at the State Tourism Awards held in Bhopal on the occasion of Madhya Pradesh Tourism Day 2015. The award was presented by Shivraj Singh Chouhan, CM Madhya Pradesh and by Surendra Patwa, state minister for culture and tourism.

Commenting on this recognition, Animesh Kumar, general manager, Jehan Numa Retreat Bhopal, said, "This is great achievement for us. We opened this Hotel in November 2013 and within one and a half years, we got this award." The Jehan Numa group is known for its hospitality. "At Jehan Numa Retreat we believe in the giving memories to the guests. And this recognition further inspires us to provide an unparalleled, unique experience to our guests while upholding the Jehan Numa Royal Culture," he added.
