

■ Keys Hotels Aims to Add 1,500 Rooms in 3 Years

MUMBAI Keys Hotels, a brand of Berggruen Hotels, is looking to add 1,500 rooms in three years and would hire 1,050 persons to support the expansion, a senior company executive has said.

"We have 1,500 rooms in the pipeline in the next three years but number of hotels is not specific as it will all depend on the properties we will get to manage," Berggruen Hotels CEO Anshu Sarin said. The hospitality group currently has 21 hotels in operations with 1,900 keys, of which seven are owned by the company, seven are franchise-based and seven are under contract management.
